

AUDITORS' REPORT

To the Members of the Canadian Bridge Federation Charitable Fund

We have audited the statement of financial position of the Canadian Bridge Federation Charitable Fund as at December 31, 2005 and the statement of receipts, disbursements and net assets for the year then ended. These financial statements are the responsibility of the Fund's management. Our responsibility is to express an opinion on these financial statements based on our audit.

We conducted the audit in accordance with Canadian generally accepted auditing standards. Those standards require that we plan and perform an audit to obtain reasonable assurance whether the financial statements are free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statements. An audit also includes assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by the Fund's management, as well as evaluating the overall financial statement presentation.

In our opinion, these financial statements present fairly in all material respects the financial position of the Fund as at December 31, 2005 and the results of its operations and changes in its cash flow for the year then ended in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles.

Notes to the Financial Statements December 31, 2005

1. NATURE OF ORGANIZATION

The Canadian Bridge Federation Charitable Fund (CBFCF) is committed to donating funds to charitable organizations in Canada on behalf of its affiliate, the Canadian Bridge Federation (CBF). The Fund is exempt from income taxes under Section 149 of the Income Tax Act.

2. SIGNIFICANT ACCOUNTING POLICIES

These financial statements are prepared in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles and include the following policies:

Revenue Recognition

The CBFCF follows the deferral method of accounting for contributions. Restricted contributions are recognized as revenue in the year in which the related expenses are incurred. Unrestricted contributions are recognized as revenue when received or receivable if the amount to be received can be reasonably estimated and collection is reasonably assured.

3. RELATED PARTIES

The CBFCF is related to the Canadian Bridge Federation as the Fund's Trustees are zone directors for the Federation. The following transactions took place between CBFCF and CBF in the year ended December 31:

	2005	2004
10% of trustee's expenses paid to CBF	$ 959	$ 527
Chairman's expense paid to CBF	1,800	1,800

It is also related to the American Contract Bridge League (ACBL) as it collects and deposits the Bridge revenue. The following transactions took place in the year ended December 31:

	2005	2004
Bridge revenue received from ACBL Service charges paid to ACBL	$ 22,764 854	$ 26,717 8,053
At December 31 the following amount was due to ACBL:	2005	2004
Accounts Payable	$ 854	$ 8,053

All related party balances are non-interest bearing and have no set repayment terms.

Notes to the Financial Statements December 31, 2005

4. FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

The carrying amounts of cash, term deposits, accounts receivable and accounts payable approximates their fair value because of the short-term maturities of these items.

5. STATEMENT OF CASH FLOW

The statement of cash flow has not been presented as it does not provide additional useful information.

6. MEASUREMENT UNCERTAINTY

The preparation of financial statements in accordance with Canadian generally accepted accounting principles require management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amount of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements and the reported amount of revenue and expenses during the reported period. These estimates are reviewed periodically, and, as adjustments become necessary, they are reported in earnings in the period in which they become known.
